In this class you'll need . . .

Now, you lack ten credits for graduation, but we're not offering a course in Afghan-istani basketweaving, which is a requirement for your Math major. Now, I would suggest you sign up for . . .

WOW! What an absolutely fantastic game!

Put a little muscle in it! . . .

The beginning of each year brings many controversial feelings together: Sadness that Summer is over, Anticipation of seeing friends, the agony of "getting yourself in shape" again for football, and the Excitement of that first game that we WON. Along with all of these are a few others which we've tried to capture here for you — Welcome back to school, friend!

Now, repeat the locker combination one more time. Please.

Ouch! I'm really outa shape,
Coach...

Where is the bathroom???

1980 IN SHORT

But honest, Mr.
Groppel, there's no
locker here!!!

Well, this is it — the last day of Summer Vacation...

"A FOOTBALL PLAYER"

"A football player likes game films, trips away from home, practice sessions without pads, hot showers, cold Cokes, long runs, whirlpool baths, recovered fumbles, points after touchdowns, and the quiet satisfaction which comes from being a part of a perfectly executed play. He is not much for wind sprints, sitting on the bench, rainy days, after game compliments, ankle wraps, scouting reports or calisthenics.

No one else looks forward so much to September, or so little to November. Nobody gets so much pleasure out of knocking down, hauling out, or just plain bringing down the enemy. Nobody else can cram into one mind assignments for an end run, an off tackle slant, a jump pass, a stunt, a quarterback sneak, a dive play, punt protection, kick-off returns, a back lateral, goal line stands, or a spinner cycle designed to result in a touchdown everytime it is tried.

A football player is a wonderful creature — you can criticize him, but you can't discourage him. You can defeat his team, but you can't make him quit. You can get him out of the game, but you can't get him out of football. Might as well admit it — be you alumnus, coach, father, mother, or fan — he is your personal representative on the field; your symbol of fair and hard play. He may not be an All-American, but he is an example of the American Way. He is judged not for his race, not for his religion, not for his social standing, not for his finances, but by the democratic yardstick of how well he blocks, tackles, and sacrifices individual glory for the overall success of the team.

He is a hard working, untiring, determined kid, doing the best he can for his school. When you come out of the stadium, grouching and feeling upset that your team lost, he can make you mighty ashamed with just two sincerely spoken words:

'WE TRIED.'

And after a victory, when you walk up to him sitting in a noisy dressing room by his locker, and pat his tossed hair and say 'Good game, Bud': through the grime, sweat, and blood a big grin breaks through that says:

"IT'S WORTH IT ALL"
